Logic,
The series of Reading-Books and Grammars have been prepared with great care, and have been pronounced by competent judges to be the best works of the kind they have ever seen.
They are the "officially recommended school-books" in the States of Kentucky and Indiana.
They have received higher recommendations than any similar works, from the best educators in the States of Virginia, Tennessee, Missouri, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia.
They are the text-books in the public schools in New Orleans, Mobile, and other Southern cities.
They are the coll series of school-books edited and manufactured in the South. For that reason, in connection with their superior merits, they deserve the patronage of the South.
They are the BEST BOOKS, and when the mechanical execution and amount of matter are taken into consideration, they are the CHEAPEST BOOKS now published.

graphs, and Ivorytypes. H. L. GOODWIN, TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallary of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends; he is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size potrait to the smallest Daguerrectype, or Ambrotype, Also, Daguerrectypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil and satisfaction given. unlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil and autisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most lurable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype, (made only at this Gallery,) is teknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic picture ever presented to the public. In oriliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best minature on Ivory.

OF KENTUCKY. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL JOSEPH LANE,

OF OREGON. TUESDAY......AUGUST 21, 1860.

[From the Lexington Statesman. Grand Mass Meeting of the Democra-

The Democracy of the Ashland District will hold a grand mass meeting at some point, probably in the vicinity of Lexington, at an early date. Measures will be taken for the accommodation of a vast assemblage of the people, and cordial invitations are extended to the Democracy of the whole State. The most distinguished speakers of the party will be present, and every attraction offered in the shape of intellectual discussion and captivating oratory. It will be an occasion of rare interest, and will congregate an immense crowd.

Due notice will be given hereafter of the time and place.

GREAT POLITICAL DEBATE.

FREE DISCUSSION. Squatter Sovereignty Brought to the Test of Reason and the Constitu-

As the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty is manifestly the great issue in the pending Presidential contest, the friends of Breckinridge and Lane, the representatives of the constitution and the equality of the States, and the equal rights of all citizens, as the symbols of everlasting Union, propose to hold a public discussion, at the Court House, in Maysville, commencing on Monday, Sept. 10, 1860, and invite and challenge the orators of all the organized parties in Kentucky to participate in the debate on fair and equal terms according to parliamentary rules and the observances of polite and courteous discussion. It is proposed that the debate, if desired, shall run on from day to day, till all parties be fairly heard. This challenge is offered respectfully and in good faith; and may be answered through the Eagle and other organs of other parties. The friends of Breckinridge will be responsibly represented, and hope the friends of Bell, Douglas, and Lincoln, will place their strongest

He is charged with heinous political by unqualified denunciation, and we should be content with such denials as long as they were circulated upon mere newspaper authority. But we regret to notice of late higher encouragement to this unjust warfare. Words have fallen from high sources seconding, in qualified terms, it is true, but substantially approving these assaults. Mr. Douglas, now engaged in a regular canvass, takes occasion to attack Mr. Breckinridge, misrepresents his positions, and perverts his language. Mr. Crittenden lately said Mr. Breckinridge is at that, in our humble judgment, Mr. Breckinridge should be heard in his own defense.

We respect the dignity of an American statesman; we appreciate the repugnance of many men to seeing a Presidential candidate do not think there is any obligation upon any man to remain silent when thus assailed. We know these charges to be utterly false; all Mr. Breckinridge's friends know them to be beneath contempt; but there are men who may be deceived, and it is proper that their denunciation should come from the highest source. We hope, therefere, Mr. Breckinridge will tear shackles of propriety, which thus make him the silent victim of charges, so false and infamous, and himself tell his countrymen the injustice and wrong done him.

The Democratic party, represented by Breckinridge and Lane, is the only political organization in the country, says the Statesman, which has met the Republicans upon every question, and taken issue with them upon every principle of their creed. IJ How stands "John Smith" upon this issue? Neighbor! How do you know?

The Issues.

It is fresh in the recollection of all, that in the canvass of 1859, the Democratic and Opposition parties of Kentucky occupied substantially the same position upon the question of slavery in the territories. Both repudiated the squatter sovereignty doctrines of Douglas, One copy, per annum, in advance...........$4 00 and both favored Congressional protection to slavery in the territories, should a necessity therefor ever arise. Last winter in the Legislature, the Democratic members re-indorsed these positions, as did also the Opposition, members by an unanimous vote. The Opposition in order still further to attest their unwavering fidelity to the principle, voted for Hon. Joshua F. Bell for United States Senator, chiefly because of his known devotion to it; and, not satisfied to rest there, voted for a resolution introduced into the House of Representatives by Mr. Burnam, of Madison, demanding, in substance, the immediate protection to slavery in the territories—being substantially the position assumed by Senator Brown, of Mississippi.

The platform of the Democratic Convention of the 8th of January last, is identical as to principles with the resolutions passed by the Convention which nominated Breckinridge and Lane. They are the same in substance as those voted for by the entire delegation from Kentucky in the Charleston Convention, and which were repudiated by the friends and supporters of Mr. Douglas. They are also in accordance with the resolutions passed by the Senate of the United States at its last session; known as the Davis resolutions, for which every Democratic Senator North and South voted, with the exception of Mr. Pugh and The National Democracy Chatlenge Mr. Douglas, and which were supported by all the Southern Senators of both political par-

> We find in the space of one short year that the Opposition party, having assumed a new name, are content to ignore these principles, and to declare simply as a motto, which nobody opposes, "the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws;" for even Lincoln is for the Union upon his basis, and for the enforcement of such laws as he believes constitutional, holding, however, that the fugitive slave law, &c., are not constitutional enactments.

The Democratic party has administered the government, with the exception of short intervals, for half a century. They have enacted, the laws and established the policy of the country, which, under their management has passed from a weak to a strong power. Within that period they have conducted its wars, negotiated its treaties, and added to our territories an immense area, including Texas, California, &c., &c. If the Opposition platform, therefore, indorses anything, it must be the wisdom of Democratic policy and Democratic legislation. The people, however, will not put up with such vague generalities. They demand a clear expression of principles from

Language could not be more explicit. In our opinion it is not liable to a double construction. The right of the people of a territory (not of the Legislature) to exclude slavery is declared to exist when they come "to form a Constitution." If a constitution declares that every free white male citizen of the age of twenty-one years shall be entitled to exercise the right of suffrage, surely it could not be the head of a disunion party. We now submit contended that they could vote prior to their arrival at the age designated, or that persons other than those of the specified class would

Congress cannot exclude slavery from the territories .-The Territorial Government is but the paid agent of the Federal Government, deriving all of its powers from the latter, and can perform no function which the parent government is forbidden by the constitution to exercise. Whatever doubts may have at one time existed in the seal from his lips, trample upon the islatures over the subject, all were removed by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case. It will not be pretended, in Kentucky, that the right of property in slaves is inferior to that in any other description of property. Not less explicit are his speeches and writings from that time to the present. His letter of acceptance and his speech on the 18th of July at Frankfort breathe the same spirit. In the latter, justly indignant under the relentless persecution with which he is pursued, he exclaimed:

"Fellow-citizens, as to the charge that the Convention to which I owe my nomination, or that the friends that support me, or that I myself am tainted with a spirit of disunion, how absurd must it sound to a Kentucky audience, and in this old district too. first time charged upon the Democracy. There has not been a Presidential canvass for many years, when it was not, with as little truth as now, brought against our party. The people understand such clamor and will dismiss it, as heretofore, as a slanderous imputation upon the party under whose lead the Republic has had such unparalleled growth and prosperity. It is now, as heretofore, the mission of the Democracy to build up and expand, not destroy the Confederacy.

Were we disposed, we might with far more justice bring home the charge of disunion upon Mr. Bell. His has been truly an inconsistent record. Opposed to the repeal of the Missouri restriction and to the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution as he was, he had, in 1850, when Breckinridge was striking for the Union, uttered the following sentiment:

"And when you present that issue to me, I say give me separation, give me disunion, give me nything in preference to a Union sustained only by power, by constitutional and legal ties, with nt reciprocal trust and confidence; if our future career is to be one of eternal discord, of angry separation with all its consequences.

We have but one word to add as to the regularity of the Convention which nominated Douglas. After the rejection of the regular delegates from Alabama, Louisiana, and other States, fifteen of the delegates from Kentucky (being a majority of six of our delegation) decided that the proceedings were so irregular and unauthorized as to forbid them from further participation with it, and they, therefore, refused longer to act, and did not after- Louisville Journal and Democrat both prowards act with it. Breckinridge-A Disunionist.

Perhaps the most outrageous and uncalled Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the for charge that has ever been made upon a canvass in Kentucky is the effort to show that clever man, says the Harrodsburg Press, is John C. But we ask upon what basis is this charge made? Is there anything in the antetion, and on the patriotism of the whole people, cedents of Mr. Breckinridge to justify this charge? We think not. He has been before the people as a candidate for office-he has repeatedly been elected-his record is well known, and we call upon any Douglas or Bell man to point out to us anything in all the record of Mr. Breckinridge which can justify the charge that he is a disunionist. The platform upon which Mr. Breckinridge stands breathes no disunion-the friends who cluster around and near him-the friends who are willing to stand or to fall with him, have no hearts for disunion. John C. Breckinridge has fought with all the ardor of youth, and all the energy of manhood to crush out and beat down all the miserable heresies of Know-Nothingism, Black Republicanism, and Abolitionism. Is there anything like disunion in this? Take him in the social walks of life, and he is worth all the other candidates-take him as public man, and he has ever been found true and faithfull to all the interests confided to his hands-place him on the rostrum, and none can surpass him in genuine eloquenceto know that no act, no word of his, has been look at his bold, manly, undisguised countenor can be produced to sustain the groundless ance—full of philanthropy, full of kindness and benevolence-we ask, can any one serious-The bug-bear of disunion is not now for the ly call John C. A number of Douglas Squatters in Kentucky, says the Statesman, went to the polls on the 6th of August and voted for a Know-Nothing caucus nominee, a bitter Opposition partisan, aided to elect him to the best office in the State, went to Louisville, exulted with the Bell men over the result, and then met together and assumed to be the Democratic party of Kentucky! Whoever heard of such brazen impudence? Men who voted for a Know-Nothing nominee, joined the Opposition in glorification over an Opposition victory, and then set up claim to the organization and name of the Democratic party-reading out such men as Boyd, and Hise, and Powell, and Breckinridge, and Magoffin, and others, whom the Democracy of Kentucky have preferred to high places. Such proceedings can but excite the sneer of contempt from true Democrats.

The friends of Breckinridge have never yet aided to elect a Republican or a Know-Nothing to office, and then shouted over it as a Democratic victory.

It is an anomalous fact, that while the upon a platform wholly unsatisfactory to all of ring, both are engaged in constant assaultforegone conclusion. This excellent piece of Southern wit, perpetrated by the Frankfort Commonwealth, and circulated by the Louisville Democrat, is just now exciting the risibles of both Yanceyfearers and Squatters. Acting under the orders of the Squatter chief, his followers in Kentucky are all joining the Opposition in denunciation of a Democratic President. Here, nevertheless, is what the Kentucky House of Representatives thought of James Buchanan, on the 12th January, 1860:

Resolved, That the people of Kentucky inderse the faithful, patriotic, and energetic manner selection of Lace Mantles of all grades, Parasols, Emin which James Buchanan, the present chief mag-istrate of the nation, has discharged the high trust reposed in him.

To this opinion JOHN A. FINN, C. S. ABELL, SAMUEL L. GEIGER, JOHN B. HUNTER, and EDWARD MASSIE, recorded their assent, as appears upon the House Journal. (Session 1859-60, pp. 283-4.)

And here is what the Kentucky Senate thought of James Buchanan on the 20th Feb. AVERILL and J. M. MILLS. ruary, 1860:

Resolved, That we have confidence in the lon esty, integrity, and ability of James Buchanan, our present distinguished Federal Executive, and we indorse his administration as sound, conservative, and national.

To this indorsement E. Dudley Walker. WILLIAM B. READ, SAMUEL H. JENKINS, JOHN F. FISK, A. D. COSBY, and JAMES R. BARRICK recorded their names, as appears on the Senate Journal. (Session 1859-60, p. 627.)

What say Messrs. Walker, Read, and others, now, of the honesty, integrity, and ability of James Buchanan, in which they had unlimited confidence six months ago? Is it a plank in the Douglas platform to be inconsistent in every thing? Must a man eat his record body-aciously before he can be a Simonpure Squatter? "Honest old Abe-dishonest old Jim!" But we regret the defeat of Simpson as much as any one, being one of the most profound Judges and finished scholars in the State, peculiarly capacitated to adorn the position to which he aspired, we can yet not join in with some of our Opposition contemporaries in ridiculing the qualifications of Mr. Peters, by making him out a second Nuttall. He is a Christian gentleman, a man of strict integrity, of unimpeachable honor, a man who had the benefit of a finished education, a man of industry and energy, who rose to wealth and position by his own unaided efforts, having commenced the world with nothing. As a sound and reliable lawyer, he ranks high among his brethren of the bar in this region, though he has not the brilliancy of many others. We do not question but what he is the peer in intellect and acquirements with any of his colleagues on the nch to which he has been elected

This much we feel it is due Mr. Peters for us to say, now that the rancor and excitement of the election is over. Our files bear testimony, that during the canvass we said not one word ally disparaging or disrespectful to Mr. Peters.

Resolved, That we reassirm the Cincinnati Platform, with the following additional propositions:

1st. That the citizens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property of any kind, in the organized Territories of the United States, and that under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Dred Scott, which we recognize as the correct exposition of the Constitution in this particular, slave property stands on the same footing as all other descriptions of property, and that neither the general government, property, and that neither the general governmen NOR ANY TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT, ca NOR ANY TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT, can destroy or impair the right to slave property in the common Territories, any more than the right to any other description of property; that property, of all kinds, in all the Territories, stands upon the same equal and broad constitutional basis, and subject to like principles of recognition and protection in the LEGISLATIVE, Judicial, and Executive departments of the government.

Control of the contro WORMS.

THE season is at hand when these scourges of childhood begin to become both troublesome and dangerous. Dr. JOHN BULL'S VEGETABLE WORM DESTROYER is a remedy alike pleasant and effectual for the evil. There is not the least difficulty in getting children to take the medicine. It is prepared in the form of Candy Drops, and will be eaten with avidity by children of all ages. It destroys and expels more worms effectually than any remedy now in use, while at the same time it will in no way affect injuriously the health of the child. It can be procured from druggists and country stores everywhere.

PORTLAND, ME., Friday, Aug. 17.

Covington, Ky., Aug. 10, 1860. August Belmont, Esq.-SIR: Your favor of the 7th of this inst., was received yesterday, and I regard it both proper and necessary that I should disabuse your mind of the confidence you placed Is much as a friend of Undge Douglas.

I was nominated before the secession at Charleston as one of the National committee, Charleston as one of the National committee, and it seems I was continued in that position at NEW STORE! NEW GOODS Baltimore. My name was incorrectly printed Harrison instead of Harris. There is no such hoped you had observed that I presided at the first ratification meeting in Kentucky that ratified the ratification meeting in Kentucky that ratified the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane. Any glance at the Kentucky papers would have shown that I had addressed several mass meetings favorable to their election. If you had thus noticed, it would have saved you and myself some trouble I regret my Kentucky friends did not attend to having my name withdrawn as committeeman when Kentucky withdrew from the Convention at Baltimore, especially as they had me placed in the same position by the Convention which nom-inated Breckinridge and Lane. No fact has been better known in Kentucky than that nothing but loyalty to Democratic usages could ever induce old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858.

PROF. Wood: Thee wilt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and heing destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

T is compounded entirely from Gums, and has become an established fact, a standard medicine known and approved by all that have used it, and is now resorted to with confidence in all the diseases for which it is recommended.

It has cured thousands within the last two years, who had given up all hopes of relief, as the numerous unsolicited certificates in my possession show.

The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels.

Let the dictates of your own judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR, and it will cure Liver Complaints, Bilious Attacks, Dyspensia, Chronic Diarrhea, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Dropey, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Chohe, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Flatulence, Jaundice, Female Weakness, and may be used successfully as an Ordinary Family Medicine. It will cure SICK HEADACHE (as thousands can testify) in twenty minutes, if two or three teaspoonfuls are taken at commencement of attack.

All who use it are giving their testimony in its favor.

A Specific for Hooping-Cough. Tis known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson, Shelby, and Oldham that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I have no doubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and full to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficiency for one child. It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the Symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dinness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System often Enormous Appetite; with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Counterance, and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Head, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the eyes, with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more Desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread than fear for themselves; no repose of manner, no carnestness, no speculation but a hurried transition from one question

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Fatury, and Effleric Firs, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION? The records of the INSANE ASYLUMS, and the melancholy deaths by CONSUMPTION, bear ample testimony to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic assiums, the most melaneholy exhibition applans. The countenance is actually sodden and quite artitute. Neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Sh. ald a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.
